SELECTED PROJECT MANAGEMENT COMPETENCIES

- Program planning: defining program parameters and objectives with leadership, building integrated plans, calendars, and milestone schedules, and planning resources and facilitator engagements against a baselined budget
- Stakeholder management: identifying and analysing stakeholders, planning engagement, building positive relationships with internal and external partners, and managing expectations under competing priorities
- Resource and team management: recruiting, scheduling, and supervising staff and volunteers, routing work to the right owner, and developing team capability across concurrent workstreams
- Communications and reporting: planning communications cadence, producing status reports, dashboards, and outcome summaries, and running planning and triage meetings
- Risk and quality: identifying risks early, planning mitigation and contingency responses, and applying quality review to facilitator and program output

WORK EXPERIENCE

Project Manager and Program Lead — 2025 – Present

Emole Futures Initiative Inc., Kingston, Ontario

- Lead the Black Youth in Business program from concept through workshops, mentoring sessions, and public events, defining program parameters and objectives with the executive team and translating them into documented scope, deliverables, and calendars.
- Identify and engage stakeholders across schools, volunteer mentors, and community organizations, and review incoming partner and participant requests to confirm required information is complete.
- Recruit, schedule, and supervise program assistants and volunteer mentors, and route activities to the right facilitators so work reaches the correct owner the first time.
- Plan schedules and milestones across four concurrent workstreams and manage a baselined budget for facilitator fees, materials, and events, updating expense reports on a regular cadence and analysing variance.
- Designed and analysed a 27-question community intake survey and applied established evaluation methods to measure outcomes against objectives, using findings to improve the next delivery cycle.
- Present dashboards and outcome summaries to executives and external stakeholders, and escalate scope changes to leadership while they remain small enough to absorb.

Project Coordinator, Arts of Africa (Curatorial Residency) — January 2025 – July 2025

The Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, NY

- Coordinated collections and interpretation planning as the Samuel and Gabrielle Lurie Fund resident within the multimillion-dollar reinstallation of the Michael C. Rockefeller Wing, delivered against a fixed, publicly announced opening date.
- Aligned curatorial, conservation, registration, education, and design teams, consulting the appropriate specialists for input and approvals on content, timing, and display decisions.
- Documented outcomes and next steps from cross-team planning meetings, identified workflow gaps and schedule risks, and escalated issues to senior staff for resolution.
- Delivered presentations to staff and stakeholders; the wing reopened to the public on schedule in May 2025.

Exhibition Project Coordinator and Curatorial Fellow — January 2022 – May 2023

Denver Art Museum, Denver, CO

- Collaborated with community advisors to shape exhibitions and public programming, incorporating stakeholder feedback into scope and content decisions.
- Coordinated deliverables and budgets across concurrent projects with fixed opening dates, juggling competing priorities while keeping results on schedule and within budget.

- Coordinated day-to-day work across curatorial, education, design, and registration partners, communicating changes as scope and schedules shifted.
- Managed print and digital deliverables, including gallery labels, catalogue copy, and digital interpretive content, from drafting through approval and final output.

Project and Curatorial Intern July 2021 – November 2021

Smithsonian National Museum of African Art, Washington, DC

- Supported exhibition planning and public engagement across curatorial, conservation, and registration teams in a cross-functional, networked environment.
